

Please do not allow wider ownership of media by single entities The coverage during the recent "Iraq war" showed enough limited variation and even more concentration of media ownership would cut down even more the variety of information that is needed for the public to make intelligent choices of information.